Previous Pet D. No. 2255 C.C.D. Suit Abated on 15/1/10

The petitioner above named most respectfully begs to state as follows:—

1. The petitioner is the lawfully wedded wife of one Kanjarabad Dollagar Chik. Krishnappa Naik and is the mother of 2 Sons and a daughter.

2. The family pension allowed to the petitioner and the other members of her family is being drawn every month by the petitioner's husband, as hereinafter and by him distributed individually among the several members of the family.

3. For the last forty years the petitioner's husband has been living away from the petitioner and her family evincing no kind of interest in or bestowing no thought or care upon their welfare or maintenance.

All the care and responsibility of providing and maintaining the family has thus devolved upon the petitioner who is a helpless woman left without any resource wherewith to meet the various needs of her family.

5. From her position in the family the person here is most fitted to be the Karavadar and receive the family pension for either distribution or for the use and benefit of the family is the petitioner and not her husband

I believe my brother resides abroad - Tenn

6. Besides the system of distributing family pension as it now obtains whereby each individual irrespective of that individual's age or Sex can receive and spend at will his or her portion of the family pension, has already had a most demoralising effect in some Kallagar families; inasmuch as it has tended to weaken if not upset the authority of the head or managing member of the family, by giving an undesirable and unwholesome incentive to young and inexperienced boys and girls even to leave of was given because the authority was lessened after pension was sanctioned & the deceased by his own assessment received the pension & being head of the family the shelter of the parental roof and lead an immoral life.

7. For instance one Chengamma the eldest daughter-in-law of the petitioner upon the strength of her being allowed a division whereupon she may be due repeatedly been running away from the home of her husband and mother-in-law. The last time she thus disappeared was on 13-1-1910 and her whereabouts are not to be ascertained.

8. Gowramma another daughter-in-law of the petitioner and a young widow with a child has similarly abandoned the shelter and protection of not only her mother-in-law's house but of her parental home as well.

9. For instances of this kind are allowed to grow and multiply unchecked, the unity and solidarity of the Pallagar families will be in great danger and the very purpose for which the Government has graciously allowed these pensions to continue will be defeated.

10. The petitioner therefore hereby most respectfully prays that (a) she may be made the karanavaran of the family pension instead of her husband, (b) that she may be allowed the liberty of utilising the pensions of the minor male and all the female members of her family for their benefit in the family.

A C Kammaniamma wife of Manjarabad palle-gar chika Krishnappa Naik residing at Bangalore aff.

The petitioner above named most respectfully begs to state as follows:—

1. The petitioner is the lawfully wedded wife of our Manjarabad Pallegar Chikka Krishnappa Naik of two Sons & a daughter.
2. The family pension allowed to the petitioner and the other members of her family is being drawn every month by the petitioner's husband Devara vardu and by him distributed individually among the several members of the family.
3. For the past 3 or 4 years the petitioner's husband has been being away from the petitioner and her family evincing nothing of interest in or bestowing no thought or care upon their welfare or management.
4. All the care and responsibility of protecting and maintaining the family thus devolved upon the petitioner who is a helpless woman left in the our any resources wherewith to meet the various needs of her family.
5. From her position in the family the person who is most fitted to be the Karavardu and retain the family pension for either distribution or for the use & benefit of the family is the petitioner and not her husband.
6. Besides the system of distributing family pension as it now obtains whereby each individual irrespective of the individuals

a year six can receive and spend at will this or portion of the family pension has already had a most demoralising effect in some Balegar families; inasmuch as it has tended to weaken if not upset the authority of the head or managing member of the family, by giving an undesirable and unwholesome incentive to young and inexperienced boys and girls even to bear the shelter of the parents roof and lead an independent life.

7. For instances one Changamma the eldest daughter-in-law of the petitioner upon the strength of her being allowed a pension whereas she may be has respectfully been remaining away from the home of her husband and the mother-in law the last time she was dis-appointed was on 13-1-1910 and her whereabouts are yet to be ascertained.

8. Govoramma another daughter-in-law of the petitioner and a young widow with a child, has similarly abandoned the shelter & the protection of not only her mother-in-law's home but of her parental home as well.

9. For instances of the kind are allowed to grow multiply undoubtedly the unity and solidarity of the Balegar's families will be in great danger and the very purpose for which the Government has graciously allowed the pensions to continue will be defeated.

Sir,

Adverting to your letter
No. Jl 5100 / SHA 374-09-5 dated 15th April 1910,
I have the honor to forward herewith the file of this office with reference to this Jolligar family, and to invite your attention to the petitions therein contained, of Chika Krishnappa Naik, Chengamma, Gowramma and Akkamma,

Akkammanna, and Narsimhaswamy Naik, and the Orders of Government No. Jl 6182-3 / St & 201-06-4 dated 12 Feb- -ruary 1907 and No. Jl 5129-30 / St & 374-09-2 dated 16 April 1910.

The various members of this family have never seemed to pull on well together and it was in order to put an end to their incessant domestic wranglings that Government were pleased to apportion the Barawardars pension between the various members.

The Petitioners object appears to be to get as much of the pension as possible into her own hands.

The Barawardar appears to be a quiet and well-intentioned old man and there is no reason to deprive him of any portion of his pension which, as it now stands, is not too much for his purposes.

There also appears no reason for the reconsideration of the Orders already passed by Government with respect to the proper apportion-ment of the Baraawandar's pension.

The distribution of the Baraawan-
-dar's pension to the various membe does not rest in his hands, but is done by the Agent who is res-ponsible to the Khazana Bukshi for its Correct distribution to them in Conformity with the orders of Government.

The original petition of Akkam-
-mamma received with your letter under reply is returned herewith.

I have the honor to be
